

John Ross. (1832-1885)

John Ross was born on October 21, 1832 at White Horse Plains. He was the son of Hugh Ross and Sara Short, brother of Donald Ross who was killed at Batoche. He married Marguerite Grant the daughter of Cuthbert Grant and Marie McGillis. A buffalo hunting family, they had children born at Roche Percée, Oak Lake, Brandon and Lake Qu'Appelle, they then moved to the Duck Lake area. He supported Riel in the 1885 Resistance and was a member of the Exovedate. Council minutes indicate that John was in charge of the cattle supplies.
