

François Amyotte (b. 1819)

François was the son of François Amyotte Sr. and Marie (Cree), he married Louise "Lucie" Hamelin (b. 1825), the daughter of Jacques-Bonhomme Hamelin (1797-1856) and Marie Allary (b. 1805) sometime before 1843. Her sister Madeleine Hamelin (b. 1840) was married to Joseph Amyotte (b. 1825). They are enumerated in the Pembina Census of 1850 as Family # 104. Francois signed Louis Riel's August 6, 1880 petition for a reserve in Montana. On September 7, 1876, Francois and his sons Jean Louis and Joseph were among the 30 Metis at Fort Walsh who submitted a petition, on behalf of the Metis of the four districts of Assiniboia to join Treaty 4.

They had the following children:

François, born 1838, died 1920 in Belcourt. First married Isabelle Decouteau, the daughter of Louis Decouteau Sr. and Isabelle Laverdure. He married Marie Celine Beriault (b. 1850), the daughter of Joseph Beriault and Isabelle Duval on May 21, 1866 in St. Boniface. Francois signed the Metis petition to join Treaty Four at Fort Walsh on September 7, 1876. He also signed Louis Riel's August 6, 1880 petition for a reserve in Montana.
