Dear Dr. Dickason:

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on the occasion of your being appointed as a Member of the Order of Canada.

The distinguished company you have joined come from varied backgrounds and walks of life. Though diverse in origin, they are united by a common drive to achieve excellence in their chosen fields of endeavour. Such high standards and impressive accomplishments are worthy of the highest praise.

Canada is a better place for the work you have done.

Sincerely,

Dr. Olive Patricia Dickason, C.M., D.Litt.

Dear Ms. Dickason,

I have recently learned of your appointment to the Order of Canada and would like to join with your family and friends in congratulating you on this great honour. It is efforts like yours that give Canada the reputation of being a vibrant and caring nation, and make it such a desirable place to live.

I would like to extend an invitation to you and your guest to attend Question Period on Friday, February 16, 1996 at 11 a.m. You will be seated in the Speaker's gallery. At the end of Question Period, I will present you to the House so that the Members of Parliament can pay tribute to you and your accomplishments.

Please call my office at (613) 996-2527 to let us know if you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

Gilbert Parent

Dear Ms. Dickason:

I am pleased to extend to you sincere congratulations, on behalf of the government and people of Alberta, on the occasion of your investiture as a Member of the Order of Canada.

Your career, as a noted writer and scholar, especially your work in the establishment of the School of Native Studies at the University and in authoring the landmark work "Canada's First Nations", represents an important contribution to the life of this Province.

Your appointment is welcome recognition of your unique achievements.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ms. Dickason:

Congratulations on your recent appointment as a member of the Order of Canada. Albertans can be proud that one of our own has been chosen to receive this country's highest honour.

Traditionally, Canadians have tended to underplay our achievements, and so we are often not aware of the contribution made by members of our own community. So, I am very pleased that your efforts have been recognized.

Yours sincerely,

Anne
