

Piché, François (Coyote). (b. 1847)

Coyote was born in 1847 at Fort Pitt, the son of Alexis Piché Jr. (Chief Bobtail) and Catherine Cardinal, both Métis. Coyote (François) was active in the Resistance of 1885 in making raids on the HBC stores at Battleford. He was acquitted at trial in Edmonton for lack of evidence. In 1886 his father and mother both left treaty and took Métis scrip for all the children (living and deceased) except Coyote. They later returned to Treaty status.
