

GABRIEL DUMONT INSTITUTE

of Native Studies and Applied Research

917 22nd Street West, Saskatoon, SK., S7M 0R9

Thank you for your inquiry regarding genealogical information relating to your family member and/or ancestor who served in the Canadian military. Please be advised that the Gabriel Dumont Institute does not conduct genealogical research. Basic information—such as enlistment dates, service numbers, wars served etc.—relating to Métis veterans whose names have been engraved on the National Métis Veterans Monument were provided by community members. Therefore, the Institute does not have any further information about the veterans other than what appears on the monument.

There are some Gabriel Dumont Institute resources that may have some information relating to Métis veterans that you may consult. These include:

Cathy Littlejohn's book, Métis Soldiers of Saskatchewan
(<https://www.metismuseum.ca/resource.php/149740>).

Lawrence J. Barkwell's book, Veterans and Families of the 1885 Resistance
(<https://www.metismuseum.ca/resource.php/149693>).

Saskatchewan-Based Métis Soldiers who Served in WWI, WWII and the Korean War (Ongoing List) (<https://www.metismuseum.ca/resource.php/14128>).

Métis Veterans' Memorial Monument List
(<https://gdins.org/me/uploads/2022/03/List-with-First-and-Last-Name-separated-March-11-2022.pdf>).

For personnel records relating to service members who served in the First and Second World Wars, please consult Library and Archives Canada at these links:

First World War: (<https://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/discover/military-heritage/first-world-war/personnel-records/Pages/personnel-records.aspx>).

Second World War:
(<https://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/discover/military-heritage/second-world-war/Pages/introduction.aspx>).

For broader assistance relating to your Métis genealogy, please consult:

The Gabriel Dumont Institute promotes the renewal and development of Métis culture through research, materials development, collection and the distribution of those materials and the development and delivery of Métis-specific educational programs and services.

GABRIEL DUMONT INSTITUTE

of Native Studies and Applied Research

Métis Nation—Saskatchewan

(<https://metisnationsk.com/citizenship/#register>).

St. Boniface Historical Society

(<https://shsb.mb.ca/genealogy/?lang=en>).

Sincerely,

Gabriel Dumont Institute

Department of Métis Culture and Heritage

The Gabriel Dumont Institute promotes the renewal and development of Métis culture through research, materials development, collection and the distribution of those materials and the development and delivery of Métis-specific educational programs and services.