

Storytelling | The Interwoven Histories of HBC and First Nations, Métis and Inuit

Please join Hudson's Bay Company and the Indigenous Advisory Council of the HBC on May 16th, 2022 at the Gabriel Dumont Institute's Gallery and Museum for a morning discussion entitled Storytelling • The Woven Histories of HBC and First Nations, Métis and Inuit.

As Canada's oldest company, HBC is working to reconcile its past and is committed to change. Join Iain Nairn, President and CEO of The Bay, Wayne Drummond, President of Hudson's Bay (stores), Tiffany Bourré, DVP of Heritage and Communications, and members of the HBC Indigenous Advisory Council: Maria Campbell and Priscilla Campeau from Athabasca University, as well as Dr. Winona Wheeler from the University of Saskatchewan for a morning of community discussion and active listening about how best to move forward on HBC's promise of reconciliation with First Nations, Métis and Inuit.

Date: Monday, May 16, 2022

Location: Gabriel Dumont Institute (Gallery and Museum)
917 22nd Street West
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

Breakfast and pre-event networking: 9:30 am to 10:30 am

Conversation: 10:30am to 12:30pm

Proof of vaccination is required to attend the event.

RSVP to: Danielle@firstpeoplesgroup.com

THE BAY

HUDSON'S BAY

